IMP IN FORM AGAIN.

Hawthorne racing was favored by perfect conditions, both as to track and weather and a large crowd for Monday kept busy the nineteen regular and two field bookmakers. Half of the horses were scratched out of the first race, thus bettering the event, as no absentee had more than an extreme outside chance of winning. Seven of the fifteen entries for the second race stayed in the stable, but again no harm resulted, although some parties would have liked to have seen the re-entry of Farley among the sprinters.

In the first race Spirituelle "rolled in." The start was a perfect one. Oleska showed in front, but the running was taken up by Tulla Fonso and Miss Marion, the pair gaining a lead of three lengths over Spirituelle in the first quarter. The favorite gained gradually, and, with J. Hill sitting still, caught and passed Tulla Fonso at the last hundred yards, galloping home. Miss Marion stopped a trifle midway the straight and finished alongside of Espionage, the pair within one length of Oleska, who gave Tulla Fonso a neck finish for the place. Queen of Song bolted at the head of the home stretch. The Grinder and Be True were beaten off. Oleska's performance occasioned much comment and showed her to be a crack filly.

"Kid" Weller and his friends backed Enchanter for the second race heavily. The bookmakers took the money at a liberal price as there was a great probability of the favorite getting left at the post. Bruen exhibited much patience as not alone Enchanter, but also Czarowitz and O'Connell acted badly. After quite a long delay a somewhat straggling start was effected, with Enchanter in the middle of the flock. The favorite at once outran O'Connell who led the others, and leading all the way, responded to Thorpe's shaking up, near the goal, and won by three open lengths. O'Connell and Diggs had a hard tussle for place and the latter had it won within ten jumps of the wire, when he stopped enough to be beaten a neck. Czarowitz was fourth close up, the others beaten off. Lone Princess showed a flash of speed three-eighths from the starting point.

Imp "paraded." For the third consecutive time of the day it was no contest, the winner being apparent long before the wire was reached. Imp went off galloping in front. Buckvidere was second and Crocket third close up to the far turn, where McNickle let go of the black mare's head and she opened daylight sufficient to plant four rows of apple trees in the next quarter and finished alone, pulling up, in the remarkable time of 1:53. Buckvidere quit to a walk at the last quarter and finished absolutely last. Crocket got the place easily from John Bright, who was ridden nearly all the way, and, in trying to get through on the inside after covering three-eighths, was shut off. Don Orsino was outclassed.

The fourth race, although won by Found, the favorite, was an exciting affair, chiefly remarkable for the great finish made by Ollie Dixon, a filly that did not seem to get going up the back stretch, but which fairly flew through the last eighth and would have won had the distance been anything over a mile. As it was she finished third. Madrilene was in front with Yuba Dam and Found at the first three-eighths and the trio raced nearly abreast at the far turn, where Madrilene began to falter. Here Linda and Bing Binger were close up. Into the home stretch Found had the others beaten, although all the horses closed in at the last eighth (even Lady Callahan, who got off badly, having thus far run nearly as good a race as the leader) but nearing the wire Huffman's filly gave it up noticeably. Urged on by J. Reiff she lasted long enough to win in a close finish from Yuba Dam, who only necked out Ollie Dixon. "Right there" were Bing Binger and Madrilene. "Here the baby comes!" shrieked the women in the grand stand as J. Reiff sailed by the others jammed in on the fence and won the fifth race with Whitcomb. Inspector Hunt and Greyhurst had been left standing still at the post. Cherryflame had got off very badly and Amelia Fonso was turning as the barrier went up. Bryan set the pace, attended by Summer Sea and Sangamon. The first named dropped back on the upper turn and into the straight the order was Summer Sea, Sangamon and Amelia Fonso. The leader stopped at the betting ring and Amelia Fonso appeared to be winning, when, from the rear on the extreme outside came J. Reiff on Whitcomb, who ran first with considerable left. Amelia Fonso finished second. Cherryflame was directly behind her and had no chance to get through as Sangamon was lapped on. The judges disqualified both Amelia Fonso and Cherryflame, placing Sangamon second and Bryan third. The owners of Greyhurst and Inspector Hunt were notified to properly school their horses, until which time their entry would not be accepted.

Miss Lizzie, taking command at the start, was not headed and won in a drive from Cutter, who just beat Idle Hour. The latter was bumped in leaving the post. Official ran comfortably in second position nearly all the way, and was expected to gain the front whenever Gray pleased; but, reaching Miss Lizzie at the last eighth, he began to back up, and finally finished fourth, the first four horses being closely bunched. Nat P. stayed in company for five-eighths, as did Prince of India. Nannie Davis finished up at the last eighth post.

The entry of Enchanter will be refused at Hawthorne until the horse shall, in the opinion of the judges, have been properly schooled. It was through Enchanter that the delay of twenty minutes occurred in the second race. Judge Rees makes the following announcement: "Hereafter, the starter at Hawthorne will only allow ten minutes at the post. When such time has been consumed, a bell will be rung notifying everybody that the field will be dispatched, no matter what becomes of the bad acting horses. Although never enforced, No. 112 of the racing rules reads: 'In no case shall the starter delay the start on account of a bad actor.'"

"Louis Sass is dead," fell like a pall upon the horsemen that in the past few years have learned to fancy a quiet, gentlemanly, unassuming gleaner of sporting news, such as he was. In the pursuit of information he was strictly business and took no part in the unseemly wrangles which, fostered by some writers, have assumed proportions likely to wreck the sport of racing; and so his paper had the advantage of printing an impartial statement from both camps. As an expert on athletics it was that Mr. Sass was the more widely known, and in this field his work was thorough. It is the irony of fate that a sporting reporter should lose his life while canoeing.

People are now guessing whether the winning of J. Reiff on horses that have heretofore failed is not because of the owners getting the animals "ripe" before they engage the crack bantam jockey.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Three brood mares were shipped yesterday from Lexington to New York, whence they go to England. One of these mares, Ida Walton, was purchased from Mr. S. C. Lyne and the other two from Colonel Milton Young. They are as follows: Ida Walton (dam of Hypatia) bay mare, foaled in 1886, by Longfellow—Bonnie Kate, by Knight of St. George. Confidence, brown mare, foaled 1890, by Longfellow—Latonia, by Billet. Ella Pinkerton (dam of Overella, Charley King, etc.), brown mare, foaled 1886, by Longfellow—Semitone, by Buckden. These mares were purchased through Francis Ware of New York for English breeders. They were all bred to Hanover.—The Thoroughbred Record.

The late B. C. Holly's horses were auctioned off at the Anaconda, Mont., track a short time since, with the following results: Montallade, b. g. 5, by Montana—Fusillade's Last, E. F. Smith, $475; Lorena II., b. m. 5, by Apache—Rill, F. P. Tilt, $475; La Mascota, br. m. 5, by San Simeon—Maria F., J. K. Hughes, $320; Devil's Dream, b. f. 4, by Chittabob—Tempe, J. K. Hughes, $300; Torsion, b. g. 5, by Torso—Ricardo, A. M. Linnell, $240; Midas, b. h. 6, by Emperor of Norfolk—Winona, E. F. Smith, $150; Paul Pry, ch. h. 6, by Sir Modred—Gypsy, H. Albertson, $150; Fred Gardner, ch. h. 7, by Luke Blackburn—Enfilade, Mike Sullivan, $130; Fortuna, br. m. 7, by Brutus—Viola Rea, Tom McTague, $110; Ivy Bloom, J. K. Hughes, $75; Racienation, H. Whitman, $40. The good 2-year-old colt Horton was sold privately to E. F. Smith; price not stated.

The annual meeting of the Turf Congress will be held in this city at the St. Nicholas Hotel, September 21. Yesterday Secretary Hopper of the Turf Congress mailed notices to that effect to all members. This meeting will be a very important one, and it is expected that some radical changes will be made in turf laws. It is also hinted by a prominent member of the Turf Congress that the foreign book will be returned, and that the best part of Rule 205 will be eliminated from the laws of the western turf-governing body.—(Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.)

Twenty entries have been received for the Morris Park Special of $5,000, distance two miles, over the Withers course, to be run on Saturday, October 8. This is the latest stake opened by the Westchester Racing Association. The score are: Ornament, The Friar, Ben Holaday, Algol, Don d'Oro, Sir Walter and Lansdale, four-year-olds and upward, and Plaudit, Pink Coat, The Huguenot, Mirthful, Warren-ton, Sir Gawain, George Keene, Floronso, Laverock, Alice Farley, Rappahannock, Latson and Longacre, three-year-olds.

Barney Schreiber beat all competitors to the name Dewey, just plain Dewey, for a youngster that he hopes will sweep the boards clean in the stakes of 1900. The equine namesake of the hero of Manila is a slashing bay colt by the Australian sire Foul Shot and his dam the broodmare America, a pedigree that makes the name neatly appropriate.

Monday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The friends of Charley McCafferty will be pained to learn of the death of his wife, which occurred at the British-American Hotel, Windsor Saturday morning. Mr. McCafferty passed through the city yesterday with the remains en route for Columbia, S. C., where the parents of the deceased reside."

At the Brighton Beach track, September 7, while at exercise, Pink Chambray, H. Harris' 3-year-old filly, by Whistle Jacket—Wamsutta, ran away, dislodged her exercise boy, named Jackson, dashed into the fence and broke her right shoulder. She was destroyed.

LEXINGTON'S RACING PROGRAM.

Just what is contemplated in the racing way at Lexington this fall is thus set forth in the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune of Sunday: "Lexington will have a big running meeting, beginning September 19, which will run for ten days. The meet will be in the nature of a military tournament, and will be for the amusement of the 17,000 United States soldiers encamped at that point. Yesterday J. Hull Davidson, the manager of the Lexington track, was at Newport and he outlined the project.

"We will give four running races each day," said Mr. Davidson, "and the purses will be $200 and $150. The meeting will be for the amusement of the United States soldiers encamped at Lexington, and it bids fair to be the biggest affair of its kind ever held in the Bluegrass region. One thousand dollars will be given to the various regiments of soldiers. Between races each day battalions and regiments will drill and maneuver in the infield, and the prizes will be awarded to the best drilled organizations. There will also be a race for military officers. After each race the purse will be paid in cash to the owner of the winner. I expect to have at least two hundred horses at the track, and this will be more than plenty. Col. Jack Chinn will do the starting. The meeting will not harm the Newport track the least bit, and is not intended to. We will operate the auction pools and mutuels in the betting ring, and do not expect a bookmaker at the track. Secretary of War Alger has promised to attend the meeting, as will Major General Breckinridge. Lexington will also give a regular race meeting in November, immediately after Latonia closes her gates. This meeting will be continued up to the time of the opening day at New Orleans, the weather permitting."

SLOAN GOES TO ENGLAND.

Tod Sloan is to sail for England to-day on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm, his alleged personal statement of the whys and wherefores being as follows:

"I am going to England to ride simply because I can do better there than I can here. I wished to ride there all this season, but contracts I had made kept me here. I have just succeeded in obtaining my release from the last stable I was under contract with, and, being free, am going to do what I wanted to do early in the spring. Business interests, as well as a feeling of personal obligation to Lord William Beresford, have induced me to keep an agreement I made more than a year ago to return to England, and I have not the slightest fear that I will be less successful this fall than I was last season. I don't know much about the horses in Lord William's stable, but he is a shrewd turfman, and I am confident he will have good material for me to work on. I have not decided on any particular course to pursue, because I don't know what conditions I am to meet; but my present plans are simply to do what riding I can straight through the remainder of the English racing season, counting first on the horses Lord Beresford gives me to ride and those of Mr. Keene.

"I expect to remain abroad for the winter. My plans for next season will shape themselves, as things happen, but whether I ride in England or America will depend upon which offers the most advantages.

"I am not sore about anything that has happened here, and there is not a particle of feeling behind my determination to go abroad other than the feeling that I will do better in many ways in England than I can here. My health has not been good this season, and the change

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A St. Louis newspaper remarks anent the positively announced final retirement of W. A. McGuigan. "Bill has not yet announced the name of his successor, who will continue his work of reforming the turf and minding everybody's business but his own. It's tough, but the turf will have to stand it."

The ring at Newport is reported to be a big loser on the meeting so far. The losses have been placed at $7,500.

Winner—Ch. f, by Spokane—Narka.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. It was a terrific drive for the place. Spirituelle is perhaps the best filly on the track. She has great speed but is inclined to loaf. After the first half had been run she had the race at her mercy. It was stepped off too in very fast time. Tulla Fonso, considering the weight she had, ran a nice race. She stood Thorpe's hard punishment gamely at the end. Watch Oleska from now on. She was running great guns at the finish and would have been second in another stride. Miss Marion stopped as though short. Still she was right there the first half and at the gait they went this was enough to stop almost any horse. Espionage was coming strong at the end. She likes a route. Queen of Song bolted on the far turn throw her race out.
Scratched—Judge Wofford, 103; Silver Tone, 111; Mazie V, 103; Canace, 103; Prince McClurg, 103; Harry Nutter, 111; Pearl Barnes, 103; Streamer, 106.
Tulla Fonso, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Oleska, show, 7 to 1.

Winner—B. g, by Carnegie—Banana.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce. Enchanter was fortunate in getting away. He had a lot of speed but was stopping and staggering at the finish. He is a fast horse but a bad betting proposition. O'Connell, under a perfect ride, ran a good race. He wanted to stop all through the stretch but Bloss did not give him a chance to and rode a terrific finish for the place. Diggs stopped in the closing drive. Umbrella made up ground throughout. Watch him over a distance of ground. Czarrowitz ran a poor race. So did The Tarcon. The latter is no sprinter and was perhaps in for work.
Scratched—Glenmoyn, 104; Sutton, 112; Farley, 100; Jim Blackburn, 103; Organ Pilot, 110; Mistral II, 107; La Princessa, 107.

Winner—Blk. f, by Wagner—Fondling.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won eased up; second driving hard; third eased up at the end. Imp seems to be back to her early spring form again. She galloped in front all the way and the race was a phenomenal one from a time standpoint. Crocket, under light weight, ran well. She was played today, too. John Bright seems to have gone back. He had little or no speed and ran a bad race. He was giving away a lot of weight, though, and the task may have been too great for him. Buckvidere was prominent for about three-quarters and then tired badly. Don Orsino can do better.
Overweights—Don Orsino, 5 pounds.
Imp, place, 1 to 2. Crocket, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. f, by Buckmaster—Pick Up.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third were driving just as hard. Found seemed to last longer than usual under Reiff. The filly was very tired though at the finish, and ready to lie down. Yuba Dam was poorly ridden. Conley was bouncing all over the colt down the back stretch. Ollie Dixon, badly outrun the first part; came with a sensational rush on the end. This is a useful filly over a distance of ground. Ring Binger was all tangled up at the start. He was shut off twice, too, and had a generally rough journey. Madrilene went all to pieces after going about three-quarters.
Scratched—Her Favor, 90; Topmast, 107.
Overweights—Lady Callahan, 3 pounds; Tusculum, 2.
Found, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Yuba Dam, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Ollie Dixon, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Ch. g, by Whitney—Lyon Lady.
Post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won cleverly; the next three were driving to the limit. As the race was run Whitcomb was the best. He was on the outside all the way and lost considerable ground on the stretch turn. It was lucky though that he was on the outside as he escaped a lot of bumping and interference. Cherryflame, after getting much the worst of the break, made up a lot of ground and came through on the stretch turn with a rush. In doing so, however, she bumped into Amelia Fonso and the latter interfered with almost everything near her. She was staggering and bore in on Sangamon and Summer Sea at the head of the stretch before Cherryflame came along. Sangamon himself was tired and was extremely lucky to get the place. Summer Sea showed a lot of speed. She is a coward, though, and stopped badly. Whitcomb's race was a startling form reversal.
Scratched—Friskal, 100; Bishop Reed, 103; Joe Ullman, 104; Majesta, 100; Filibuster, 107; Winslow, 100.
Overweights—Inspector Hunt, 4 pounds.
Corrected weights—Greyhurst, 104.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second, third and fourth doing their best. Miss Lizzie had the foot of the party and barely managed to last long enough. Cutter was coming strong at the end and would have beaten the filly in a few more strides. He was none too well handled, Hothersall letting him swerve in the stretch. He interfered with Official when he swerved, but the latter was beaten at that time. Idle Hour came from far back in the stretch. He also swerved under punishment. Official was well enough handled and had no excuses. Judging from this race he is of little present account. Cyril ran a bad race.
Scratched—Belle Decker, 90; Alva's Pet, 90.
Overweights—Little Singer, 4 pounds; Idle Hour, 2; Branch, 1 1/2.
Miss Lizzie, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Cutter, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Idle Hour, show, 3 to 1.
